CREATE A JUST WORLD

We Christian people of the United States of America must not overlook the heartaches, loneliness and dispair of the people whom we have put into relocation centers because of the existing war. But we must bear in mind that they are a part of ourgreat American commonwealth and eventually when the war is over must take their places as citizens of this country and be accepted and respected and never be made the object of our hate and prejudice.

The time for the beginning of this program of readjustment and reabsorption is now. It should notbe left until the war is over but we should begin now slowly and thoughtfully to help create the kind of world we want when the war is over.

COLLECT

Almighty and everlasting God, give unto us the increase of faith, hope, and charity; and, that we may obtain that which thou dost promise, make us to love that which thou command; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

IN THE MAIL BAG

I felt quite wealthy this morning because I got paid. This summer isn't very profitable but I'm not worrying too much. I'm trying hard however, to save enough money to get home but it's going to be a tough struggle. I received a letter from Mike today. He is now walking around without crutches. He says that all he has todo now is get rid of his limp and he'll be O. K.. Abe was appointed physical director for the Downtown "Y" at Centerville Millsthis year, handking activities for 250 boys. Isn't that nice? Abe loves to be busy and he certainly isn't losing any time picking up more work to do. Work is still proving to be interesting and fun.

Ruth Tahara, Geneva, N. York. . . . . This week we have not been doing much at work. Due to the heat, all the crops did not come in for Vitamin studies as planned so work has been quite slack, although one day two bushels of string beans came in for blanching studies therefore kept us busy all day. Due to the heat many of the peach crop have been a failure. In ordinary weather the peaches are as large as those delicious apples we find out in the West but due to drynessthe peaches are just the size of lemons and so they are not even bothering to pick them. Poor farmers, I sure feel sorry for them. Last year the frost; this year the heat. I ofte n wonder if it is worth gamblingwith this unpredictable weather.

Pvt. George Kakehashi, Ft. Snelling, Minn. . . Just to let you know that we have begun our studies with most of us suffering from lack of knowledge of "kanjis". If it weren't for that fact, I am sure good many of us could find our studies much easier. After moving here from Savage, we re ceived a three day pass so I proceeded to Yellow Springs. Yes, I was certainly glad to see mother and Sam after a absence of nearly a year and an half. They are relocated in a small but a very fine community. Yes, Johnny or I will not have to worry about them. I have been attending the Gethsamane Church since I've returned here to Ft. Snelling Plans are being formulated so that Fr. Dai cancome out to the Post and hold services for the men here. My regards to all the church members.

Walla Walla, Washington, Akira Nakamura. . . .It's been a long time since I left camp but I haven't been doing much. All I've been doing is eating, working, and sleeping - simple, isn't it? I've been working twelve hours a day, seven days a week so I couldn't do much. I am now picking prunes about 10 to 11 hours a day. It sure gets tiresome. I get so tired at nights that I can't seem to accomplish anything. The people around here are mostly Seventh Day Adventists. From the way the people talk they don't eat meat and never work on Saturdays. As far as I am concerned, relocation is all right. I've never travelled much and have n't gone to the city very often but this life out in a country suits me just fine.

Mac Iwashita, New York City, New York. . .Last week my Brother and I visited friends in Philadelphia. We had quite a reunion. I am employed by the C. I. O. Political Action Committee. I work seven hours a day, and five and one half days a week, so the work isn't bad. Also have leisure time to write a few letters at the office . . . .
